

CALL FOR PAPERS

European Geriatric Medicine (EGM)

The recently launched EUGMS official journal, is now accepting papers in the field of ageing and geriatric medicine.

A wide scope of original and review articles will be considered for publication: fundamental/translational research, geriatric care, hot topics in geriatric medicine, pharmacology and techniques applying to geriatric medicine, controversies in geriatric medicine, specific care programmes for the elderly, case reports, letters to the Editor, book reviews, and geriatric career achievements.

Rapid publication is presently guaranteed, as well as availability on ScienceDirect which ensures worldwide visibility.

To submit papers to the journal electronically, please use the following site:
